FINANCE.

Cl. 33.—Advance Pay—Mixed Detachments returning from India.

1. An intimation having been made by the Indian Government that advances of pay will no longer be made to mixed detachments of troops returning to this country by the Indian troop ships, so much of Clause 159, Army Circulars, 1869, and Clause 114, Army Circulars, 1870, as relates to such advances, is cancelled.

2. In the event of the officer commanding such detachments not having in hand sufficient funds belonging to the troops to meet any claim which may be preferred on landing for loss or damage done during the voyage, he will apply to the Control Paymaster at the port of disembarkation, who, upon being furnished with the names, &c. of the men, and the places of their destination, will advance the necessary amount out of the money which may be due to the men as ship's clearance, recovering the same from the officer by whom they are next taken into payment.

Cl. 34.—Field Allowance.

1. In future, when troops are placed under canvas, either at home or abroad, under circumstances which entail the issue of field allowance as sanctioned by the Royal Warrant of 26th April, 1862 (W. O. Circular 752), a report will be made immediately by the general or other officer commanding to the Secretary of State for War.

2. The report will show the reason for placing the troops under canvas, and will state the proposed duration of the encampment.

3. Claims for the issue of field allowance will be forwarded for approval to the controller of the district in which the claim arises, whose duty it will be to see that they are strictly in accordance with the Royal Warrant above quoted, and that no unnecessary or excessive issue of the allowance is made.

4. When approved by the controller, regimental claims will be paid by the regimental paymaster, and staff and departmental claims by the control paymaster, and be charged in their respective accounts, subject to audit.

5. Claims must be supported—

a. By a copy of the order under which the troops were encamped.

b. By a certificate from an officer of the Control Department that the claimants were not in the occupation of quarters, nor in the receipt of lodging allowance during the period to which the claim refers.

c. By the approval of the district controller.

d. By the paymaster's certificate, in the case of officers of the Royal Engineers, that the deductions referred to in Article 203 of the Royal Warrant of 27th December, 1870, have been or will be made.

6. Claims for field allowance will invariably be made out on W. O. Form 103.

Cl. 35.—Lodging Allowance to Soldiers on the Married Establishment.

1. A non-commissioned officer or soldier on the married roll will continue to receive lodging allowance for the benefit of his wife and family when he may be in hospital, or temporarily separated from his family on service, provided no married soldiers' quarter becomes available for their use.

2. Paragraph 40 of Clause 53, Army Circulars, 1871, is cancelled.

Cl. 36.—Schools of Instruction for Officers of Engineer Volunteers.

With reference to Clause 161, Army Circulars, 1870, it is to be understood that the rates of extra duty pay, therein prescribed for instructing officers of Engineer Volunteers, can only be granted when a class of such officers is formed for a special course of instruction, which will not be done unless five officers at least are prepared to attend.

Cl. 37.—Payment of Engineer Claims.

(Issued as a Special Army Circular on 19th February, 1872.)

1. All claims which may be certified and marked as chargeable against the Works Vote for any particular financial year, should be paid on or before the 31st March of that year.

2. In cases where from any cause this is found impracticable, control paymasters will communicate with the commanding Royal Engineer, explaining why payment has not been made, and that officer will either revise the claims, or, if funds have not been provided, will apply for fresh authority, stating whether there will be any savings in the same "parts" of the vote from which the amounts can be defrayed.

Cl. 38.—Army Chaplains.

1. Army chaplains of the 2nd and 3rd class will be classed as regards accommodation in barracks, and money allowance in lieu of fuel and light, with regimental field officers not commanding; army chaplains of the 4th class with regimental captains.

2. So much of the schedule published with Clause 87, Army Circulars, 1871, as applies to Army chaplains of the 2nd, 3rd and 4th class, is hereby cancelled.

3. The commuted allowances for fuel and light granted by Clause 87, Army Circulars, 1871, will not be issued to officers in receipt of lodging money, or occupying public quarters where fuel and light in kind are issued.

Cl. 39.—Establishments of Regiments, 1871-72.

1. The establishment of the 80th Foot will, from 1st January, 1872, be the establishment of 920 rank and file fixed for battalions serving in the colonies, as detailed in Clause 90 (page 16), Army Circulars, 1871.

2. The establishment of the 2nd battalion 20th Foot will, from the 26th January, 1872, be the establishment of 600 rank and file fixed for battalions serving at home, as detailed in Clause 90 (page 13), Army Circulars, 1871.

1. Metal straps to facilitate the removal of the covers of zinc cylinders of the first pattern, containing cartridges for the muzzle loading rifled guns will be issued in the following proportion, viz.:—

One set for each nature of cylinder for each expense magazine in temperate and cold climates, see List of Changes, § 2178.

2. Officers commanding the Royal Artillery will put forward demands through the local controller for the number of straps that may be required.

Cl. 42.—Stores, &c., for Garrison Instructors.

1. Lists of the articles supplied on the first establishment of a class to garrison instructors for the instruction of officers are printed as an Appendix to this Clause. The lists indicate the sources from which the various articles are to be obtained; the quantities are not to be exceeded, and are only to be drawn as required.

2. The surveying and mathematical instruments already issued will be transferred to the charge of commanding Royal Engineers, who will account for them in the same manner as for the control stores issued for the instruction of troops in field works. (See Clause 71, Army Circulars, 1871.)

3. Demands for articles to be supplied by the Control Department, and held on inventory, will be made on the district controller, but the demands for stationery will be forwarded to the superintending officer for garrison instruction, Aldershot, for transmission to the War Office on the dates laid down in Clause 133, of Army Circulars, 1871.

4. Garrison instructors will in future be supplied with the necessary instruments from the stock in charge of the commanding Royal Engineer of the military district in which they are located, except in the case of Chatham, where the supply will be met by the commandant, School of Military Engineering.

5. Articles of the following descriptions, viz., nails, string, small pieces of wood, the few tools necessary for making small models, rough military maps, &c., required by garrison instructors in carrying out their duties, may, provided they cannot readily be obtained from public stores, be purchased by those officers on and after the 1st of April, 1872, to the value of 5*l.* per annum for each instructor.

6. The bills for the articles will be sent to the controller for payment, and a statement will be rendered annually by instructors to the superintendent of garrison instructors, for transmission to the Director General of Military Education, showing the articles purchased, and the necessity for procuring them.

Cl. 43.—Remains of Stores.

With a view of expediting the completion of remains of stores, the following will be substituted for Paragraph 4, Article 125, of the Regulations for the Control Department (Revised Army Regulations, Vol. IV.)

4. A remain ledger will be kept for the purpose of obtaining a total of each description of article, and for the entry of all receipts and issues occurring in the course of the remain by which the total may be affected. This ledger will be prepared prior to the commencement of the remain, and will be posted from the day book of the commissary, and examined daily, with the day book of the officer appointed to take the remains.

Collected accounts will be prepared in duplicate by the commissary or other officer of the Control Department at the same time as the remain ledger is prepared; the totals only being left to be filled in at the close of the stock-taking and at the balancing of the remain ledger, so that the account may be immediately rendered as directed in Paragraph 1. The collected accounts will show the total of every article in store and actually in charge of the commissary on the day the stock-taking closes, and the articles will be arranged in the remain ledger and collected accounts according to the authorised classification and nomenclature. Spaces will be left in the remain ledger and collected accounts for the insertion of any new descriptions of articles which may be received during the progress of the remain. The officers concerned in taking the remain will sign the collected accounts, and the commissary in charge will give a receipt on each account, acknowledging himself to be in possession of all the stores therein enumerated. One copy of the account will be left with the commissary in charge; the other copy, as well as the day book of the officer appointed to take the remain, will be forwarded by that officer to the controller, for transmission to the Secretary of State for War.

Cl. 44.—Report on Defences and Armaments.

The annual report upon the state of the defences and their armaments, hitherto rendered to this department, on W. O. Form 158, by general officers commanding, will no longer be required.

Cl. 45.—Valises.

1. Valises of regiments which have been purchased by the Government (under Paragraph 1, Clause 195, Army Circulars, 1871), will be marked on the inner or canvas side of the outer flap, with the remaining number of years they are required to last, according to the duration fixed by the regimental boards appointed to examine and value them.

2. The marks will be made with the types supplied to regiments. They will be placed on a different part of the canvas from that on which the number of the accoutrements is specified (Paragraph 11, Clause 126, Army Circulars, 1871), and will be arranged in the following manner:—

1880

In this instance the figures 1871 denote the year of transfer to the equipment ledger; 9 the number of years the valise is required to last, and 1880 the year to which the valise must last, according to the original period of wear fixed, viz., 10 years.

3. For this service an allowance not exceeding 9*d.* for every 300 articles marked will be granted, the amount being charged in the manner laid down in Clause 93, Army Circulars, 1871.

Cl. 46.—Ration Returns.

1. Control officers at home stations are informed that the form of ration return for provisions, fuel, &c. (W. O. F. 1416), has been revised.

2. In future the monthly return of provisions, fuel and light, and forage, will be rendered separately on W. O. F. 1416, 1414, and 1578 respectively. The officers of the Control Department will see that these returns are complete in every detail before they are transmitted to the War Office, with the provision store account (W. O. F. 1577), for examination.

3. Particular attention shall be paid to the insertion of the billets in W. O. F. 1578; as any omission causes delay and inconvenience in the settlement both of regimental and control accounts.

4. The new Forms 1414 and 1416 will be taken into use from the 1st of April, 1872; Form 1578 (forage) being rendered monthly as at present.

5. The existing stock of W. O. F. 1416 is to be considered obsolete.

EXAMINATIONS FOR THE ROYAL MILITARY ACADEMY.

Cl. 47. (Issued as a Special Army Circular, on 2nd February, 1872.)

1. The Secretary of State for War having decided that three examinations of candidates for admission to the Royal Military Academy shall be held in 1872 and three in 1873, it is announced, with reference to the regulations issued as an appendix to Clause 132, Army Circulars, 1871, that the limits of age between which candidates will be eligible will be as follows:—

For the examination in May, 1872, 16 to 19* years; the candidate being between those limits of age on the 1st May, 1872.

For the examination in September, 1872, 16 to 18½ years; the candidate being between those limits of age on the 1st July, 1872.

For subsequent examinations, 16 to 18 years; the candidate being between those limits of age on the 1st January for the January and May examinations, and on the 1st July for the September examination.

2. Clause 205, Army Circulars, 1871, is hereby cancelled.

Cl. 48. WAR OFFICE FORMS.

W. O. Forms 1053 and 1054 have been cancelled, and in lieu thereof W. O. Form 1091 (convey note) will be issued to controllers and regiments (at home).

A new W. O. Form 1290 has been issued (Surveys on Supplies, Return of) and will be issued on demand to controllers at home.

W. O. Form 762 is obsolete, and has been cancelled.

W. O. Form 139 (Abstract of Bills for the Carriage of Stores) has been cancelled by W. O. Form 1195.

(Signed) J. C. VIVIAN.

* In the Special Army Circular of 2nd February this limit was fixed at 18½ years, but it has since been decided to extend it to 19.
